EXECUTION OF SPY FULLY EXPLAINED

(By Associated Press.)

PARIS, Sept. 5.—In view of recent German comment on the execution at Marseilles recently of Felice Pfalt, as a spy, certain details of the case were made known authoritatively here today. The statement that the woman was a German was denied and it was said that the comparison of her case with that of Edith Cavell, the British nurse who was put to death by the Germans at Brussels, was unwarranted.

According to this information, Felice Pfalt was a French woman, born at Nancy in 1880. She went to Belgium in 1914 to visit her mother. While there a German official proposed that she gather military information in Paris. She spent three weeks in Paris and then reported the results to Germans, who, she admitted, paid her 5000 francs to undertake another mission.

Returning to Paris from Lausanne, Switzerland, in July last year, she was expelled by the perfect of police. She went to Marseilles, where she boarded at a house frequented by army officers. She was caught in the act of spying and admitted she had been commissioned to gather military information. Only July 10 she was unanimously condemned to death by a court martial.

FIFTY INJURED BY RIOTING STRIKERS

EL PASO, Sept. 5.—Rioting, an outgrowth of a strike of street railway trainmen in progress here, followed a Labor day parade yesterday. The rioters attacked several street cars being operated by strike breakers in the downtown streets, wrecked the cars and beat the trainmen.
